

Andrew Eborn

President of Octopus TV Ltd.

"A visionary lawyer, broadcaster, futurist, and strategist."

Andrew Eborn, President of Octopus TV Ltd, is an accomplished international lawyer, strategic business adviser, broadcaster, author, and futurist. With a proven track record, Andrew has spent years helping companies navigate evolving markets, optimise the value of their assets, and drive strategic growth.

TOPICS:

- Business Strategy
- Media
- Leadership & Personal Development
- Technology
- Moderator
- Intellectual Property

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2021 The Book of Failure

IN DETAIL:

A familiar face on global media, Andrew appears daily across various platforms, presenting diverse formats, hosting special features, debating trending topics, conducting news reviews, moderating panel shows, and engaging audiences as a corporate speaker. He is also a sought-after host for live events, including major festivals—boasting a presence on more platforms than Paddington! Additionally, Andrew presents and chairs events and podcasts for prominent organisations, including the Royal Television Society. His multifaceted career spans law, television production, future technologies, and brand strategy.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Throughout his career, Andrew has empowered international corporations to adapt to shifting markets, maximise their rights, and enhance their strategic development. A technology enthusiast, he remains at the forefront of innovation, driving advancements in entertainment and beyond.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Andrew is a dynamic, engaging, and insightful Speaker, blending sharp wit, deep expertise and a charismatic stage presence.