

Mr. !DECEASED Boris Brott

Symphony Conductor and Motivational Speaker

"Inspired by difference"

Boris Brott is one of the most internationally recognised Canadian symphony conductors. He enjoys a varied career as a guest conductor, educator, motivational speaker, and cultural ambassador and is adept at connecting the worlds of music and business.

TOPICS:

- Motivation
- Playing Together
- Breaking New Ground
- Teamwork and Leadership
- The Joy of Communication
- Lighting the Creative Flame

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English, German, Italian and Spanish.

IN DETAIL:

Founder of the Symphony Nova Scotia, he enthuses music lovers around the world. He is currently the artistic director of Ontario's Brott Music Festivals, conductor and music director of the New West Symphony in California, artistic director of Symphonia Canada, and conductor of the McGill Chamber Orchestra in Montreal. He has won many international prizes; most notably the gold medal in the Dimitri Mitropoulos Conductor's Competition in New York, where he assisted Leonard Bernstein. Boris has been delighting Fortune 500 audiences throughout the world and getting standing ovations. Thousands of executives from national and international organisations have profited from his lateral approach.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Boris Brott draws on the comparisons between business organisations and symphony orchestras, and explains that each have common goals and must perform in harmony to achieve those goals as they strive for perfection. His message is pleasantly unique, memorable and satisfying.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

His unique "Playing Together" program is an interactive experience where attendees "rehearse" and ultimately, play Beethoven's Ode to Joy as they learn crucial business lessons about teamwork, leadership, creativity and achieving success.