

Danah Zohar

Educator, Physicist, Philosopher and Management Strategist

Is spiritual intelligence the difference between winners and losers?

Danah Zohar is best known for her ground-breaking work on the spiritual intelligence, SQ. She examines how SQ creates integrity, morality and individuality and makes the difference between competitors and winners. She was instrumental in Shell's highly successful transformation in the United States.

TOPICS:

- Sustainability
- Innovation
- Spirituality/Ethics in the Workplace
- Leadership
- Science and Spiritual Innovation
- Re-Wiring the Corporate Brain
- Quantum Thinking and the Three Intelligences of Leadership
- SQ for Personal Development and Self Management

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2004 Spiritual Capital
The Quantum Soul
- 2000 SQ - Connecting with our Spiritual Intelligence
- 1997 Who's Afraid of Schrödinger's Cat? A Dictionary of the New Scientific Ideas

Rewiring the Corporate Brain:
Using the New Science to Rethink
How We Structure and Lead
Organisations

IN DETAIL:

A visiting Fellow at the Cranfield School of Management, she also teaches in the Oxford Strategic Leadership Programme at Oxford University. Applying her extensive knowledge of the new sciences to practical, hands-on techniques that businesses can use, she has lectured widely throughout the world. She has worked with numerous prestigious organisations.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Applying her philosophy and experience of the workings of the human mind she shows you how to embrace rapid social and technological changes and use them for personal and organisational benefit. Grasp SQ and see what underlies your values and beliefs, your sense of perception and ultimately the reasons behind your actions.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Both highly intelligent and personable, she uses her vast experience to educate and stimulate you with her insight and truly remarkable grasp of new principles for business leadership.