

Felix Baumgartner

Iconic Record-Breaking Skydiver and Daredevil

"Sometimes you have to go up really high to understand how small you are"

Felix Baumgartner is a skydiver and BASE jumper. Nicknamed "Fearless Felix" and "God of the skies", he made history in 2012 by breaking the world record for the highest-ever skydive, jumping from a balloon more than 39km (128,000 ft) up in the stratosphere and became the first person to break the speed of sound in freefall.

IN DETAIL:

Felix began skydiving aged 16, polishing his aero-acrobatic skills in the Austrian military's demonstration and competition team. In the 1990s, he moved from traditional skydiving to Base jumping, leaping off fixed objects and using a parachute to break the fall. He has completed many incredible feats in his BASE jumping career, broke two other world records (highest freefall and highest manned balloon flight) to complete his most daring mission to date. Felix's other ambition was to become a helicopter pilot. He has been flying commercial helicopters after getting his licence in the US and has done extreme, charity and rescue flights. Felix also developed his own personal humanitarian project: FLY 4 LIFE.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Fuelled by scientific curiosity, Felix finds his drive in pushing the limits of human potential. He is not just seeking records; he's unravelling the mysteries of the human body's capabilities. From his personal journey, he ignites inspiration and issues a daring challenge to audiences: transcend your boundaries and grasp the extraordinary.
