IN DETAIL:

Michael has established himself as a truly international phenomenon with a staggering range of instrumental rock, fusion, classical and jazz recordings that have featured unparalleled versatility with both acoustic and electric guitars, and now mandolin. He has been a member of the rock bands Orphan; King Dazzle; The Cherry People; KINGS; Here, Now and Forever; and now, American Crush. He has released over 40 solo albums and videos, and has produced nearly as many other artists. Michael's brilliant career is solidly anchored in the practical realities of the music industry. Michael is also a world renowned, professional martial artist and one of the highest ranked Israeli Krav Maga instructors in the world.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Michael is extremely articulate about the philosophical and psychological aspects of embarking on a new endeavor, emphasising the importance of not allowing fear of failure to impede progress, but rather to use it as a chance to learn and improve.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Michael's passionate and inspiring speeches are extremely provocative. He is a natural entertainer who mesmerizes audiences with his music as well as his presentations.
