

Baroness Tanni Baroness Grey-Thompson

Paralympics Gold Medallist

"Tanni Grey-Thompson's story will stay with me for ever.... a true inspiration"

Baroness Tanni Grey-Thompson DBE is considered to be one of the most successful disabled athletes in the UK. She has competed in events over a wide range of distances and has won a total of 16 Paralympic medals, including 11 golds, held over 30 world records, and won the London Marathon six times.

TOPICS:

- Significance of Strategic Planning for Achieving Success
- Fostering Teamwork
- Understanding the Dynamics of Success and Failure
- Embracing Forward Thinking
- Nurturing Aspirations

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

2001 Seize the Day: My Autobiography

2007 Aim High

IN DETAIL:

One of Great Britain's most successful Paralympians, Baroness Grey-Thompson's remarkable achievements catapulted this Welsh wheelchair athlete firmly into the public consciousness. She retired from active sport in 2007. Tanni is chair of UKActive and a member of the boards of Transport for London and the London Legacy Development Corporation and is Chancellor of Northumbria University. Tanni is also a passionate television and radio sports commentator. Her voice and incisive analysis are a key part of the coverage at a number of events including the London Marathon, World and European Championships, Olympic and Paralympic Games.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

With her extensive background, Tanni holds expertise in driving transformation within boardrooms, enabling her to connect her political, business, and sporting encounters to the prevailing concerns of our time.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Tanni is an exceptional public speaker with extensive experience delivering key messages to diverse audiences. She possesses a wealth of knowledge and expertise that allows her to effectively coach and mentor companies, groups, and individuals, enhancing their performance.